A18. Working for Families Tax Credit

They are payments for families with children 18 years or under.

There are four payment types and you may qualify for one or more, depending on your personal situation.

The determinations are complex, the annual income definitions for families are wider than taxable income. Please refer to the IRD website and especially the publications FS 1, IR 201 and IR 200, note you can register online.

How much you can get depends on:

- How many dependent children you have.
- Your children's ages.
- Any shared care arrangements.
- How much you and your spouse or partner earn.
- Where your family income comes from.
- The number of hours you work each week.

We will not calculate such credits for you unless specifically requested to do so.

The information required is detailed and you should contact the IRD directly to ensure your personal circumstances are up to date.

Please Supply:

- The full names of all children under 18 in your care.
 - Their dates of birth
 - Their IRD numbers if they have one.
 - Details of any periods where the children were not in your care.
- Child support payments received and/or paid.

- Income from the following Sources
 - a) Attributable Trustee income
 - b) Attributable fringe benefits
 - c) PIE Income
 - d) Passive income of children
 - e) Tax exempt salary or wages
 - f) Pensions or annuities
 - g) Other payments received >$5,000 per tax year
